For those who wish to explore the historicity of the Gospels – the first 100 minutes of this film, Jesus of Testimony, are helpful. Although most of those interviewed are not yet Catholic and therefore do not bring in the role of the Church in identifying, translating, and preserving Holy Scripture, that whole first hour is very good. Part III (1:00:24-1:18:41) is about miracles and is very incomplete (no distinction between supernatural and preternatural, no mention of the purpose of miracles or the need for the Church). Part IV (1:18:41-1:33:34) is on prophecies and types of Our Lord. (I did not watch the rest of the documentary.)
